FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Who

The ALBC is made up of concerned citizens, including: shop owners, bars, restaurants, grocery stores, nightclubs, hotels, promoters, package stores, pubs, entertainers, and hospitality employees.

What

The ALBC is a non-profit organization committed to protecting the City of Atlanta's commerce and community through collaboration among alcohol license holders, elected officials, law enforcement and the general public.

Where

We represent interests throughout the City of Atlanta. You can find us on the web at www.albc.info.

When

While attendance at our regular meetings is not required, there are ample opportunities for involvement. We will keep our members informed about social events as well as issues that require immediate action.

Why

We want the City of Atlanta to remain an economically vibrant, energetic, international destination. We want the City to be a lively, fun, and exciting place for both residents and visitors. We want to remain an integral part of the social fabric of the community of Atlanta.

To be considered for membership in ALBC, a completed membership application must be returned along with a check for the annual dues investment. Membership dues for subsequent years will be invoiced on September 1.

In consideration of payment of the membership dues investment, the ALBC provides its members with valuable services including, but not limited to: serving the interests of its membership before city legislative and regulatory bodies; educational seminars and continuing education programs; communications and public relations for the industry; and other activities of benefit to ALBC members.

Therefore, in exchange for the services provided by the ALBC, the undersigned agrees as follows: to pay membership dues investment amount and in such installments as may be determined by ALBC in accordance with its Bylaws; and to provide the Council in writing, addressed to the Chair, of its desire to cancel its membership.
